

to pass the TEACH Act, which ensured that educators could use limited portions of dramatic literary and musical works, audiovisual works, and sound recordings, in addition to the complete versions of non-dramatic literary and musical works that were already permitted, and that they could use the Internet to do so.

I also appreciate my colleagues' willingness to eliminate the presumptions in the criminal liability provisions, and to take up the Copyright Office's creative ideas for addressing pre-release works.

Were it not for their willingness to address these concerns, I would not have been able to offer my support for this bill. I thank my colleagues for their assurances as well as for their hard work in gaining passage of this important legislation.

Mr. FRIST. I ask unanimous consent that the committee substitute amendment be adopted, the bill, as amended, be read the third time and passed, the motion to reconsider be laid on the table, and any statements be printed in the RECORD.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.
